More About Chapman Market & Koreatown:

As the center of Los Angeles, Koreatown, is home to a rich history that showcases the diversity and depth of LA life. Chapman Market is at the center of the past, present, and future of the area's most prime real estate, boasting the city's prime Korean BBQ spots, local favorite bars, as well as new shops and eateries that highlight the sheer variety of all that Koreatown has to offer. The Art Deco aesthetic makes the plaza an iconic part of the LA landscape.
